At 10:33 am I received a phone call from Legislator Josh Cantrell asking if I've communicated with anyone regarding, he/Josh and me supposedly having an affair or any type of sexual contact. I stated no, we have never had that type of relationship nor have we ever been alone anywhere together. We have attended a lot of the same functions, however, there have always been crowds of people when we have interacted. We both agreed that there has never been any inappropriate gestures or behavior between the two of us. Josh stated that his wife received a text message and his wife assumed that he/Josh and I had an affair. I text josh and ask if he would send me a screenshot of the message. The message is below:
